

The LLH Team wish to congratulate both Isabella Binnie and Matthew Sowerbutts for their outstanding results and achievements as recognised and presented by CAANZ recently.

Isabella Binnie completed her Chartered Accountant qualification in early 2021, but COVID delayed the presentation of her merit awards until recently. Bella received two merits for her outstanding results in the Financial Accounting & Reporting and Management Accounting & Applied Finance modules she completed in 2020. She will complete further studies in 2022 to also become a fully qualified Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) with the Tax Institute.

Matthew Sowerbutts has been a star performer. He joined Le Cornu Lewis Hancock as an Undergraduate Accountant in 2020 and graduated from University of South Australia in late 2020. Matthew holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) and a Bachelor of Business (Finance) with outstanding results. He has continued to gain exceptional results in his Graduate Accountant studies being awarded dux of the Tax Institute CTA1 Foundation Module in 2021. He is currently completing his Chartered Accountant studies and CAANZ has recognised his outstanding top of the state achievements and presented merit awards in both the Risk & Technology & Business Performance modules he has completed in 2022.

These are outstanding achievements and the Partners wish to acknowledge them and also thank the entire team who have excelled in their own studies and now provide excellent guidance and mentoring to our Graduate's during their professional development.
